Semi-Translucent Opalescent mixes are primarily opal glass, eliminating the perception of images through the sheet. Because of their relative opacity, these glasses are highly reflective in nature. With backlighting, natural or artificial, they reveal a captivating, luminescent glow.